Puddle of Mudd headlines Darmstadt Celebration

Heidelberg, Germany – U.S. Army Garrison Darmstadt will welcome home local Soldiers with a celebrity concert at Cambrai-Fritch Kaserne on Friday, Nov. 17. The concert, produced by Installation Management Command-Europe Morale, Welfare and Recreation, is part of a community celebration to welcome home Soldiers from the 440 SIG (SPT), 32 SIG (AREA), and HHC, 22 SC BDE.

The line-up of professional acts kicks off at 4:00 p.m. with a family-friendly song and dance performance by five members of the NBA's LA Clippers Spirit Dance Team. Jenny Boyle Band, a DOD touring show co-sponsored by Armed Forces Entertainment, follows at 5 p.m.

Headliner and Soldier favorite "Puddle of Mudd" takes the stage at 6 p.m. The group is back to rock the troops as a reprise of their highly successful welcome home shows and Iraq tour in 2004. "Puddle of Mudd" is recommended for mature audiences.

The performances are free to all ID card holders.

Media requests for interviews and photo stories must be coordinated in advance; please submit requests to IMCOM-Europe POC Jim Sohre at sohrej@ima-e.army.mil, who will in turn coordinate with the appropriate agencies. Coverage of the event must be coordinated with the USAG Darmstadt Public Affairs Office.

The U.S. Army Installation Management Command, Europe Region (IMCOM-Europe) is one of six regional offices created Oct. 24, 2006, (formerly known as Installation Management Agency) as part of an Army-wide initiative to focus management of Army installations around the world under one organization. IMCOM-Europe is responsible for all facets of support for U.S. Army Soldiers and families in Europe from drivers' licenses to child care to force protection. As the landlord for all U.S. Army facilities in Europe, IMCOM-Europe is responsible for infrastructure and continuing the Army's strong commitment to environmental protection. Its higher headquarters is located in Arlington, Va.
